The history books claim America entered World War I because of unprovoked German aggression and the tragic sinking of the "Lusitania" in 1915. This narrative is a classic example of historical fabrication. The real story is far more complex and involves the Rothschild family's financial empire. Ruchir Sharma, Rockefeller International chairman, joins 'Squawk on the Street' to discuss how geopolitics have impacted equity markets. The most repeated story in financial history is almost certainly fabricated. In June 1815, the legend goes, a During the chaos of World War II, one family quietly financed both sides of the conflict. From London to Zurich, from Nazi Germany to the Allies, the Rothschild family's influence was pervasive and often hidden.
